

JORGE TELLEZ-VARGAS, MD

Founder and inaugural president Colombian Biological Psychiatry Association (CBPA), Past president Latin-American Federation of Societies of Biological Psychiatry and Director CBPA Medical Continued Education Program, program was distinguished by WFSBP as the better in Latin-American (International Congress, Santiago de Chile, 2007)

I am also Director Neuropsychiatry Area, Instituto de Neurociencias, Universidad El Bosque and Professor of Psychiatry and Psychopathology, School of Medicine, Universidad El Bosque, Bogota, Colombia and Scientific Director of Colombian Association against Depression and Anxiety

I am also International Member of American Psychiatry Association (APA), Inaugural member of International Neuropsychiatric Association (INA) and member of Collegium Internationale Neuro-Psychopharmacologicum (CINP), International Psychogeriatrics Association (IPA), International Society of Bipolar Disorders (ISBD)

Author of 12 books, 37 chapters and 46 articles publishing in Spanish about neurobiological issues of mental disorder

Recipient "Excellence Award" Colombian Biological Psychiatry Association in 1996 and 1998.

My goals as a member of Executive Committee are:

- To work towards increasing the members and the National Societies in Latinamerican
- To enhanced the knowledge in Neuropsychiatry and Neuro-psychopharmacology in the Latin-American general practioners