

Brief Biographical Sketch - Dr. Adriana M. Rivetti

Adriana M. Rivetti has held leadership positions for national organizations including the President of the Argentine Association of Biologic Psychiatry (AAPB); and she is now the president of the chapter of Biological Psychiatry of the Argentine Association of Psychiatry (AAP) and also the scientific Secretary of Argentine Association of Biological Psychiatry (AAPB). Dr. Rivetti is also professor of Association of Neuropsychiatry Association (ANA).

She conducted the online course Neurobiology of psychiatric disorders (AAPB, 2018). Dr. Rivetti was the General Director and Professor of training education seminar for Resident physicians and young professionals (“Neurobiology and therapeutics of Psychiatric Disorders”) from 2010 to 2016.

She also was the coordinator and Professor of several workshops (“DSM5: The future is today. The new diagnosis in psychiatry” in 2013; “Depression and Medicine” in 2012; “Psychiatry for neurologists and neurology for psychiatrists” in 2012).

Dr. Rivetti is now the Medical Director of Psicosalud (Medical Center of Psychiatry).

Dr. Adriana Rivetti’s major areas of research interest include neurobiology and treatment of mood disorders.